You asked... We answered.

Which products are covered in an Express Advantage Plan?

Express offers plans for Sage Intacct®, Dynamics GP and D365 Business Central. Each product has a separate program, which is individually priced.

What is the term length for an Express Advantage Plan?

Each plan is based on a one-year annual service contract, which starts on the date of your signed agreement.

Can I purchase an Express Advantage Plan any time of the year?

Yes, a plan can be purchased throughout the year at any time and does not have to be synchronized with your ERP renewal date.

How do you define a “support incident”?

Consultants are available to handle errors or broken functionality problems that can be resolved remotely. Support is not meant to replace training.
